LPS1175 Issue 8

TSA Member Burton Safes are delighted to announce that the Keyguard XL key safe, the industry leading certified key safe has passed the very latest independent test standard LPS1175 Issue 8 and has achieved level A3. The Keyguard XL is the first Key safe to achieve this level of certification and is currently the most secure mechanical key safe on the market.

So, what does Issue 8 - A3 mean for you and your organisation?

- The product has been physically attack tested for 3 minutes now, previously 1 minute
- Some of category A tools used to attack product in issue 8 are now longer, this is to reflect new methods of attack and tools available
- It is certified for fixing to rendered walling by multiple fixing types, available to all installers
